Summary of CV

This section describes briefly a summary of your career in science, academic and research; the main scientific and technological achievements and goals in your line of research in the medium -and long- term. It also includes other important aspects or peculiarities.

Josu Amezaga has a degree in Sociology and a PhD in Political Sociology. He is a Full Professor (equivalent to a Professor in the Basque University System) and a member of the Department of Audiovisual Communication and Advertising since 1987, to which he has been Head for 7 years (2013-2020).

He has published several scientific works, and has directed or collaborated in multiple research projects, either in competitive calls or through agreements and contracts. He has, to date, the recognition of three six-year terms of research and one more of transfer.

He has been Head to the NOR Research Group since 2010, recognized by the Basque Government and which reached category A in 2016 (at least until 2025). It is currently made up of around twenty researchers.

He has been a member of the Research Committee of the UPV/EHU (2010-2013) and of its Governing Council (2015-2020).

He has carried out research stays at Victoria University of Technology, Melbourne (6 months, 2004); Center for Cultural Policy Research of the University of Glasgow (5 months, 2008); and Charles Sturt University, Port Macquarie, Australia (5 months, 2017), as well as others for one month at Stirling University, UK (1996) and Macquarie University, Sydney (2013).

He has supervised 8 doctoral theses, 6 of them international; and one of them in co-tutelle with theUniversité de Bordeaux. He is supervising another 3.

Among the research projects in which he has acted as Principal Investigator, there are three of the Spanish I+D+i calls: Multilingual TV: Communication spaces in Europe, in the multilingual context of television (2012-2016, CSO2011-28060-C02- 01); SOLIDARY: New solidarities, reciprocities and alliances: the emergence of collaborative spaces for political participation and redefinition of citizenship (2018-2022, CSO2017-82903-R); and the ALMA network – Network for research excellence in media accessibility (2020-2022, RED2018-102475-T), made up of 7 research groups from 6 Spanish universities.

He has also been PI in 4 University-Society research projects, in collaboration with the media sector. He has also leaded various research contracts, mostly with the Basque Government. He has also been PI in the awarded project of the II J. I. Ruiz Olabuenaga Research Grant, called by the Sociological Prospecting Office of the Basque Government and the Basque Association of Sociology and Political Science, which has allowed a pilot experience in the field of data fusion for audience analysis.

As a collaborator, he has participated in a research project commissioned by 6 public bodies from the New Aquitaine region (État des lieux du secteur audiovisuel et cinéma du pays basque de France et préconisations pour son développement, 2021-2022), in two research projects research funded by the Euskadi-Navarre- New Aquitaine Euroregion (BEHA: Composition et alphabetisation numérique du panel unifié pour la mesure du trafic dans les web sites des médias basques, 2021 and 2022), and in a project commissioned by the group Greens/European Free Alliance, European Parliament (Monitoring languages and accessibility on EU streaming platforms, 2022), among many others.

Having been close collaborator for many years with the European Mercator network on minority languages, he currently belongs to the International Association for Minority Language Media Research (IAMLMR), in whose foundation he took part.
